TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR NO. 28.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1904.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR.

DR. JOHN TURNBULL.

In the death of Dr. John Turnbull of Bellbrook, Greene county loses one of her foremost citizens and the medical profession one of its leading practitioners. For some time back Dr. Turnbull has been in poor health being taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Dayton where he was operated on for relief from gall stones. He withstood the operation very well but on Monday took a turn for the worse continuing so until the end, Tuesday morning.

Dr. Turnbull was a physician and surgeon of note and was born in Cedarville township on March 10th, 1840. He received his early education at the district schools and at the age of 14 he entered the graded school at Cedarville and a few years later was placed under the tutelage of Dr. John G. Kyle, of Xenia. In 1860 he attended the lectures at Jefferson Medical college of Pennsylvania.

He returned home in 1861 and enlisted as a private in Co. A, 17th O. V. I., at the first call for troops in the Civil war. After laborious service of nearly a year, serving as assistant surgeon of the 65th regiment of Ohio, he returned to Jefferson Medical college. From which he graduated in March, 1863. Later he was appointed assistant surgeon 105th O. V. I., and was mustered into the service on July 3d, 1863, and assumed entire charge of the medical department of the regiment. At the battle of Chickamauga, he had three bullet holes shot through his clothes and two men were shot dead while he was dressing their wounds on the field. He was taken prisoner while remaining with the wounded on the battlefield of Chickamauga and was paroled to take care of the wounded in the rebel lines. For three days and nights after this little he never closed his eyes to sleep, amputating limbs, dressing and caring for the wounded and dying until he sank exhausted on the fourth day of the work.

After his arrival home from the war he married his former preceptor's daughter, Miss Josephine A. Kyle, who survives him. In 1865 he located in Monmouth, Ill., where he practiced medicine for awhile. He returned to Xenia in the spring of 1866 and entered into a partnership with Dr. John G. Kyle, his father-in-law, with whom he practiced medicine for a few months. In 1866 he moved to Bellbrook, where he opened an office and where he continued to practice his profession until his last illness, being an honored citizen and a physician of great talent throughout his long service of nearly forty years in that community.

Besides his wife he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. H. C. Armstrong, of this city. Dr. Turnbull is survived by the following brothers: Alex and Samuel, of Cedarville, and Thomas, of California.

Charles Turnbull, and Hugh Turnbull of Cedarville, are half brothers. He also has two half sisters, Miss Minnie Turnbull and Mrs. W. L. Clemans, both of Cedarville. The funeral was held on Thursday morning at ten o'clock at the residence. The burial was at Bellebrook cemetery.

O. S. AND S. O. REUNION.

The annual reunion of the members and ex-members of the O. S. and S. O. Home at Xenia, last week, was one of the most delightful and largest attended in the history of that splendid institution. The affair lasted three days, and was one continuous round of pleasure for those who attended. Base ball and other outdoor sports were indulged in during the daytime, while dancing and waquettes were the amusements in the evening.

FOR SALE.

Having made arrangements to remove from Cedarville, I desire to sell my restaurant, including stock and fixtures; also my livery and feed stable. I will rent the building used by the restaurant, the dwelling adjoining and the stables to the parties purchasing. Terms made known on application.

GEO. BOYD,
Cedarville, O.

The 65th annual fair for Greene County takes place the first week in August. Write for a list of premiums and regulations.

Call and see my line of buggies, harnesses, carriages, etc., at W. R. Stierwalt.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends for the assistance they rendered us during the sickness and death of our daughter, Edna May.

MR. AND MRS. O. E. BULL.

GREENE COUNTY FAIR.

The races and purses hung up at the Xenia fair are as follows:

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 3.—2:35 pace, $300; 2:50 trot, $300; running races, 1 mile heats, $100.

THURSDAY, AUG. 4.—2:50 pace, $300; 2:18 trot, $300; 2:17 pace, $300. FRIDAY, AUG. 5.—2:25 pace, $300; 2:28 trot, $300; running, mile heat, $100.

WHY DON'T HE RETIRE?

Hon. Chas. Q. Hildebrand was in Lebanon last Friday and told Postmaster "Bill" Antrim and the other men who is for him in Warren county that he would not again attempt to submit his case to the district election board but would take the matter into the courts. His astute attorney, Hayes, has dug up a case out in Missouri—where you have to show me—where he thinks is similar to Hildebrand's alleged case, and the courts gave the contestant, a favorable decision, and, like a drowning man grasping at a straw, Hildebrand thinks he might have some standing in the state courts. If the Hon. Chas. only knew how very, very tired the people are of hearing about "claiming" he would retire into the same obscurity in this district that he has enjoyed in his two terms in the House of Representatives at Washington.—Spring Valley Blade.

OHIO STATE FAIR

The Ohio State Fair and Industrial Exposition to be held at Columbus, five full days, August 29, 30, 31, and September 1, and 2, 1904, is called to the attention of the people as the mecca of interest and enterprise toward which travel will be directed on the days named.

This now important Ohio institution is the culmination of years of effort, and the expenditure of large sums of money, in moulding grounds into a beautiful and inviting park resort, and the erection thereon of a class of fine, large, Exhibition Buildings, imposing in appearance and complete in every detail of arrangement for displaying the results of art and education, and the products of science, skill and industry, in Fifteen Great Departments, where the exhibits made are classified and arranged in divisions for intelligent comparison and inspection by the general public who attend the fair.

The object of inviting inspection and comparison of the exhibits is to instruct and enlighten the masses relative to progress and improvement in all that pertains to the public good, and this great object stamps the Ohio Fair as of and for the whole people.

The exhibits in the many buildings will be supplemented by acres of operative exhibits on the open grounds; by rare feature attractions and by high class amusements, to make the general occasion the more interesting and enjoyable.

Make your arrangements to attend the fair. The cost is small, the benefits large, the enjoyment all that could be wished.

PROF. BROWN'S LETTER.

COYOACAN D. F., MEXICO,
July 7, 1904.

To the Editor of the Herald.
Not outside of Boston itself have I ever seen the Fourth of July better observed than in the capital of Mexico. Americans, Mexicans and Englishmen were so united in the celebration that it was difficult to tell who were the most enthusiastic. In the sporting events Mexicans and Englishmen carried off as many prizes as the Americans. At 9:45 a. m. General Powell, Clayton, United States Ambassador, arrived on the scene of festivity—Tivoli del Eliseo. He was accompanied by several of the members of the diplomatic corps. His salute of seventeen bombs was soon followed by another of twenty-one in honor of the arrival of President Diaz.

GENERAL PERIRIO DIAZ

The Americans could not help but regard as a high compliment the presence of the President of the Republic, several cabinet members and a contingent of Chapultepec cadets. General Diaz is hale and hearty at seventy-one years of age. A short time ago he was watching the military cadets in their gymnasium when he suddenly pulled off his coat and went up a rope hand over hand as easily as any of them. The following is an extract from the speech of President Diaz to those who sat at luncheon with him on the Tivoli.

"This is an anniversary that deserves to be celebrated not only by Americans but by all who have at heart the progressive humanity."

"To honor this anniversary and that progress, let us lift our glasses, gentlemen, expressing the hope that that great republic, which is the model and pride of popular representative institutions, may for centuries keep on the road of increasing prosperity which it owes to the lofty patriotism of its founders and the enterprise, tireless industry and inventive genius of its sons. Let us drink, too, to the personal felicity of its worthy president, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, of the esteemed personnel of the United States embassy, and of all Americans in Mexico. May they in this land of their friends enjoy the full measure of happiness which would be the lot of Washington and his illustrious compatriots could they rise to contemplate the grand consummation of their work and the realization of their fondest and most patriotic ambitions."

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE
The immortal document was read with appropriate intonation by Rev. Sloan of the Baptist mission, United States Consul General James R. Parsons delivered the day's oration ending with a fine tribute to President Roosevelt.

"Whose high endeavors are an inward light, That makes the path before him always bright;

Who, if he rise to station of command, Rises by open means, and their will stand On honorable terms, or else retire.

Whose powers elude round him in the common strife, Or mild concerns of ordinary life.

A constant influence, a peculiar grace; But who, if he be called upon to face Some awful moment, to which Heaven has joined Great issues, good or bad for human kind, Is happy as a Lover; and attired With sudden brightness, like a man inspired.

This is the happy Warrior; this is He That every Man in arms should wish to be." Thank God that all over the civilized world the name of Theodore Roosevelt is a spur to clean living, to high thinking and to fearless action!

$7000 FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY

The American colony subscribed over $7,000, Mexican, for the celebration. Nor did that go for fireworks, because at that at this season it is almost certain to be too wet for a pyrotechnic display. As it happened there was very little rain. The thermometer as usual stood at about 67° in the houses.

"PIKING THE PIKE."

A good share of the fund went towards fitting up the "Pike" with shows of various kinds and throwing it open free for all; the young American especially and their elders incidentally. The negro minstrels and the merry-go-rounds drew the largest crowds, though the wild man of Barneo, the Siamese twins, the "death defying" balloon ascension were great attractions.

TON AND HALF OF CONFETTI SOLD.

Everybody showered confetti on everybody else except the President.

People and grounds looked as if a snow storm had at last struck Mexico. The sales amounted to more than $2,500.

The two military bands furnished by the Mexican government were very popular with the crowd. "The Star Spangled Banner," "The Red, White and Blue," and "Yankee Doodle" raised storms of cheers, though "Dixie" was called for most often.

I have been able to speak of only a few of the happy events of the day, nor have I given more than a faint idea of the cosmopolitan crowd and the gay appearance of the Tivoli. Everyone went home satisfied with a celebration which was true to the day and served also to cement international friendship.

Yours truly,
R. A. Brown.

MAD DOG SEASON.

At the present time there are quite a number of stray dogs at large in town and some action should be taken by the authorities in seeing that the owners keep them in charge. The season of the year is here when to much care cannot be exercised as to dogs running in the streets, without being muzzled. A mad dog is a very dangerous animal and in some seasons not an uncommon thing. For this reason we urge that all dogs be muzzled.

It is supposed that a mad dog runs about with evidence of intense excitement, but we are told that he is usually alone and in a strange place, where he jogs along slowly. They will never bite man or beast only when close enough, thinking they are to be disturbed. If a dog yelps, or whines or growls it is not mad. The only sign a mad dog is known to emit is a hoarse howl, and that seldom.

If your dog should be bitten by a supposed mad dog watch him carefully. If he is affected by rabies you will discover it in from six to ten days. There will be a swelling about the neck and the animal will be thirsty. A mad dog has no desire to stay at home. Therefore all dogs should be muzzled.

Of Wild Interest.

Breed, Wis., July 18—Special—Chas. Y. Peterson, Justice of the Peace for Oconto Co., has delivered a judgment that is of interest to the whole United States. But, briefly, that judgment is, "Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best kidney medicine on the market today."

And Mr. Peterson gives his reason for this judgment. He says: Last winter I had an aching pain in my back which troubled me very much. In the morning I could hardly straighten my back. I did not know what it was but an advertisement led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. After taking one box I can only say they have done more for me than expected as I feel as well now as ever. I did before."

Pain in the back is one of the first symptoms of kidney disease. If not cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills it may develop into Bright's disease, diabetes, rheumatism or some of the other deadly forms of kidney disease.

CLERK'S REPORT.

The annual report of the County Clerk to the Secretary of the State, just completed, gives some interesting statistics. It shows that 27 divorces were granted in Greene County during the year ending June 30, 1904. Forty seven divorce suits were brought during the year, and as thirteen were pending at the beginning of the year, the number in court is brought up to 60.

Of the number brought during the year 30 were on account of absence and neglect, nine on account of adultery, and one for fraud. Of these granted, seven were brought by husbands and twenty by wives.

In the list of criminal cases where convictions followed, the offenses were: Assault with intent to kill, 1; assault and battery 1; robbery, 3; burglary, 1; grand larceny, 2; horse stealing, 1; perjury, 1; Fines collected, $185; total of grand and petit jury fees, $928.85.

Inquest held, 11; cases pending July 1, 1903, Common Pleas Court, 176; Circuit, 5; filed during year, Common Pleas Court, 227; Circuit, 27; disposed of during year, Common Pleas Court, 193; Circuit, 183; Circuit, 6.—Gazette

Mr. Charles Kliff, of Clifton was injured on Tuesday by a horse while shoeing it. The animal got him down and he was trampled upon in a terrible manner, though his physician thinks there are no bones broken. It was only about a year ago that Mr. Kliff was injured in a similar manner.

BULLET ENTERED BRAIN.

Ralph, the eleven-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Swope, of Xenia, was accidentally shot in the brain, Monday morning while at play, by Erskine Townsley, a nine-year old son of Arthur Townsley, of Dayton, but who makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Townsley.

There was a flobert rifle in the dining room and one of the boys picked up the gun and pointed it at the Swope boy. The gun was discharged, the ball entering the head at the nose, penetrating through to the brain. The little fellow died about 2:30 in the afternoon.

There was no one in the room at the time except the boys, Mrs. Townsley hearing the shot, went to the scene where she found little Erskine holding the gun. He could give no account of the sad affair.

Coroner W. A. Clemans held an inquest Monday evening concerning death of Ralph Swope and decided that it was by the accidental discharge of a flobert rifle in the hands of the Swope lad and Erskine Townsley.

Brilliant Record of a Newspaper Man.

The success which has attended William E. Curtis, the famous correspondent of The Chicago Record-Herald, is rarely attained by newspaper writers. Beginning his career in Chicago in 1872 as reporter, he rapidly rose to the position of managing editor. He resigned that position on receiving a government appointment as secretary of the South American commission. Mr. Curtis traveled extensively in Central and South America, while in this position, producing several popular volumes as the result of his literary labors. Afterward cooperating with Secretary of State James G. Blaine, Mr. Curtis organized the work of the bureau of American republics, with the result that he was placed in charge of that organization, and at the World's Columbian Exposition he distinguished himself by his labors as the executive head of the Latin-American department. As correspondent of The Chicago Record-Herald, Mr. Curtis' travels have carried him into every section of the United States as well as into all quarters of the globe. His China and Japan letters were published in book form; likewise his letters from England, Germany and France, as well as those written during his travels in Mexico and South America.

No newspaper correspondent possesses the facility shown by Mr. Curtis in writing on any of the diversified subjects embraced in his correspondence and making it luminous. Nor is any correspondent followed so closely year after year by the thousands of readers of The Chicago Record-Herald. On his recent trip to the Holy Land Mr. Curtis' letters have been read more closely than ever, and his descriptions of that interesting section of the globe as it appears today have been quoted everywhere.

A daily letter from Mr. Curtis appears in The Chicago Record-Herald.—The best bakers use Model Flour.

HORACE C. KEIFER,
Trustee of Theo. S. Anthony, Bankrupt.

To enable us to justly estimate the value of Anthony's stock a force of employees were at once assigned for the purpose of making a correct estimate, which resulted, to our amazement, very favorable, inasmuch that the SILK, DRESS GOODS, HOSIERY and UNDERWEAR ALONE COVERED TWICE THE AMOUNT PAID FOR THE ENTIRE STOCK, FIXTURES, Etc., pertaining thereto.

As Is Our Rule and Methods We intend the Buying Public of Springfield and Surrounding Counties within 100 miles shall share with us our foresightedness and advantages in securing this exceptional stock and under such favorable circumstances.

"As for instance for illustration," the Silk department which is an unusually large one, the appraisers favored us very advantageously in their appraisement. There's thousands of yards of Imported Wash Silks we can and will sell at 10c a yard and fancy Silks at same price. There are thousands of yards of fine Silk suitable for Shirt Waists, that sold by Anthony at $1.00 we can and will sell at 39c; there are Cheney Bros.' Foulard Silks, we will sell at 59c and everybody knows their price is $1.00. An endless variety of BLACK SILKS and this store only handled the best BLACK SILKS obtainable, these will go at just HALF. We were surprised to find the celebrated Peau-de-La-Vant Silks taken in at a price enabling us to sell at 59c, manufacturers' price at mill is $1.00.

BLACK AND COLORED DRESS GOODS is another instance where the appraisers favored us, as every price was invoiced at Half. Remnants were amassed together at a price that we shall close out at 15c a yard.

It is About Useless to detail here THE SUPERIORITY of Anthony's stock of HOSIERY and UNDERWEAR as this is where they held their name famous, as only the best lines were ever handled by this firm. WE FIND CASE AFTER CASE, UNBROKEN LINES and full boxes in condition as they left the mills.

MEN'S UNDERWEAR from the Forest, Norfolk, New Brunswick, Lansing and other celebrated. Ladies' underwear from the mills of Fort Schuyler, Munsing and Richleau. There's almost a full case of Ladies' Silk Underwear, that Anthony sold at $1.50, we shall sell at 50c and hundreds of dozens Men's, Women's and Children's we can sell at 5c.

LADIES' SUITS, SEPARATE SKIRTS, JACKETS, WRAPPERS, WASH SHIRT WAIST SUITS, and every kind of Children's READY-TO-WEAR GARMENTS. All these were invoiced so low that we shall offer ready-to-wear garments at 50c, $1.00 and $2.00 that are worth ten times this price; then again we find a lot of fine Ladies' Garments, that Anthony sold at $50.00, we shall close out $10.00.

Perfumes and Toilet Articles

Will be about given away, as we do not handle this class of merchandise. Table Linens Domestic, Colored and White Wash Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols, Corsets, Muslin Underwear, notions galore, Men's and Ladies' Furnishings, Lace Curtains, Portiers, Draperies, Silk and Mercerised Petticoats, Laces, Embroideries, Ribbons, Leather Goods, Handkerchiefs, these departments are astonishingly large of well selected goods, but will nevertheless all be but given away.

Taking this stock as a whole, we find it the cleanest and best selected we ever had the experience of seeing under the same circumstances, and we are more than satisfied that everybody, as well as ourselves, were taken aback when these extensive stocks were placed on sale Monday.

Remember we pay car fare on all purchases of $10 or over.

Respectfully, THE KINNANE BROS. CO. Bushnell Building, Springfield, Ohio.

For Excellence Our Work will compare that of any other firm

ENDSLEY-GR

Beautiful Wedding at the of Mrs. Belle Gra

INTERESTING I

Ceremony Performed W. R. McChesney in Presence of Friend

One of the prettiest wedding has occurred in Cedarville years took place Wednesday at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Belle Gray, when her daughter, Elma, was united in marriage to Andrew Doak Endsley, of Pennsylvania.

Just before the ceremony "rosary" was sung by M. Siegler, followed by the Bridal Chorus by a quartet of Rev. W. J. Frank Bull, George Siegler Bull, accompanied on the piano by Miss Mabelle Owens.

To the sweet strains of Chorus Miss Edna Hunter, of honor, entered the room, followed by the bride, who was met by the groom at the door. The bride's best man, Mr. E. C. Then came Miss Lucile flower girl, followed by the arm of her brother, Gray. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. McChesney, the happy couple for life.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom led the wedding party to the dining-room, where a delicious supper was served. The bride's table were seated the persons:

Mr. and Mrs. Endsley, Mrs. McChesney, Miss Edna Hunter, Mrs. Dunn, M. Owens, Miss Lucile Gray, Hugh Endsley, E. C. Fa James Gray.

The decorations were throughout. The dining blue and white for the color blue and white hearts, blue white sweet peas. Green were the colors for the of clematis being found in abundance.

The bride's gown was white muslin, elaborately trimmed. She carried sweet peas. The maid-of-honor carried a blue silk gown with white carnations. The beauty of the bride, who handsome and attractive, more evident than on this. The groom was attired in tation black and was looking well he might, over winning estimable bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Endsley went to Xenia immediately after where they took an interim Dayton. They took the this point for St. Louis, will remain one week. (turn they will make a short before going to their ne Tarentum, Pa., where Mr. principal of the high school
